Shadows and Serenades: An Enchanted Evening of Music and the Unexpected

Friday, October 24, 2025 | Plymouth Center for the Arts

PLYMOUTH, MA — The Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra invites the community to step into a world of mystery, music, and magic at its fall fundraiser, Shadows and Serenades: An Enchanted Evening of Music and the Unexpected, on Friday, October 24, 2025 at the Plymouth Center for the Arts.

Nestled in the heart of historic downtown, the Plymouth Center for the Arts provides the perfect backdrop for this enchanting evening. Its galleries, brimming with creativity and charm, will be transformed into a space alive with candlelight, music, and mystical energy — a setting where every corner holds something unexpected.

The evening begins at 6:30 PM with a VIP Candlelight Concert, featuring an intimate performance by a Phil string trio led by Eleanor Blake, cello. Surrounded by art and the warm glow of candlelight, music and atmosphere combine to create an unforgettable start to the night.

At 7:30 PM, the experience expands into a celebration of art and intrigue. Guests will enjoy captivating stories told by Neil McGarry, mystical tarot readings, live background music, and delectable hors d'oeuvres. A cash bar and a lively silent auction filled with unique treasures add to the evening's enchantment.

Tickets:

- $100 — Includes VIP Candlelight Concert + full evening experience
  - $25 — Shadows & Serenades event only (7:30–9:30 PM)

All proceeds benefit the Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra, supporting its mission to create inspiring performances and educational experiences that connect and uplift the community.
