THE PLYMOUTH PHILHARMONIC RETURNS TO HANOVER YMCA FOR FREE OUTDOOR CONCERT

PLYMOUTH, MA —The Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra in partnership with the Emilson YMCA in Hanover will present a free outdoor concert featuring the Phil's Cabaret Orchestra on Wednesday, July 13th at Laura's Center for the Arts.

“We love sharing music that’s fun and engaging for all ages in this casual setting at Laura’s Center for the Arts,” says the Phil's Executive Director Kim Corben. “There’s something magical about live music performed outdoors on a summer evening!”

Phil Conductor Steven Karidoyanes leads the musicians of this novel 26-piece band, described by Karidoyanes as “a portable Pops orchestra,” in a wide-ranging, family-friendly concert. It features American favorites “Maple Leaf Rag,” “Sweet Georgia Brown,” and “What a Wonderful World,” light classics such as the lively and familiar “Can-Can” and the fiery “Toreador Song” from “Carmen,” and the latest earworm craze from Disney’s “Encanto,” namely, “We Don’t Talk About Bruno.” The music of George Gershwin and Irving Berlin round out the program.

South Shore YMCA’s Laura’s Center for the Arts is located at 97 Mill Street, Hanover, MA. Seating is general admission with areas for concertgoers to place lawn chairs or blankets. Guests may bring the food and beverages of their choice. Nona’s Ice Cream Truck will provide ice cream for purchase. The lawn opens at 6 PM; the concert begins at 6:30 PM and runs for about an hour without intermission. In the event of rain, the concert will be inside the Center, which is fully accessible.

The concert is sponsored by the Emilson Family in partnership with the Emilson YMCA. The 107th Season of the Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra is funded in part by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.
